Visit Mount Airy's largest cemetery and learn about the iconography and symbolism of early grave markers, meet some of the community's more interesting citizens and explore a new way to learn about local history. This is a local history lesson like no other available to your students. (Approximately 1.5 hours) A tour fee of $7 per student is required. Group size is limited to 25 students.