

The strength of individuals and the strength of community were recognized at the first Mount Airy Museum of Regional History's Founder's Day celebration held Thursday in the Woltz Clock Tower and Courtyard.

Mount Airy Mayor Deborah Cochran gave the opening speech at the gathering. She was accompanied by Vice Mayor Pro tem Steve Yokeley and City Commissioners Scott Graham and Dean Brown.

Read more: Mount Airy News - Strength of individuals community praised at Founder's Day ceremony